The Ultimate Canton Fair Tour Handbook by Mytoursmates

The China Import and Export Fair, popularly known as the Canton Fair, is the world's largest trade fair, held biannually in Guangzhou, China. For decades, it has been the most important platform for global buyers and sellers to connect, negotiate, and build strong business relationships. For Indian entrepreneurs, the Canton Fair is not just a trade exhibition—it's a gateway to exploring global opportunities, affordable sourcing, and business growth.

At Mytoursmates, we specialize in offering customized Canton Fair tour packages designed to simplify your journey, maximize your trade exposure, and ensure you get the best value from your visit. This handbook is your complete guide to understanding the fair, preparing for it, and making the most of your trip with us.

1. What is the Canton Fair?

The Canton Fair is organized by the China Foreign Trade Centre and held every spring and autumn since 1957. Known as the largest international trade exhibition in Asia, it brings together over 25,000 exhibitors and 200,000 buyers from across the world.

It is divided into three phases, each dedicated to different industries such as electronics, textiles, machinery, consumer goods, furniture, and more. Whether you're a small importer or a large business, the Canton Fair offers something for everyone.

2. Why Should Indian Entrepreneurs Attend?

For Indian traders and businesses, attending the Canton Fair has multiple advantages:

- Direct Access to Manufacturers – Build partnerships without middlemen and reduce sourcing costs.
- Variety of Products – Explore thousands of new products and innovations in one place.
- Negotiation Opportunities – Face-to-face interactions allow for better pricing and customization.
- Market Insights – Stay updated on global trade trends, quality standards, and technology.
- Business Expansion – Import quality products and expand your portfolio back in India.

Mytoursmates ensures you don't just attend but truly maximize your trade opportunities at the fair.
